A Journey to Excellence

By developing an understanding of the Four Books through a structured learning approach, students will become proficient at analysing the synopsis, original texts, annotations, and commentaries of the Four Books. :

1. Analects (論語)
2. Doctrine of the Mean (中庸)
3. Great Learning (大學)
4. Mencius (孟子)

Career Prospects

- Take your Sinology studies to a higher level.
- Assist in teaching a variety of Sinology programs in Australian language schools where a higher education degree is not required.
- Develop Sinology programs, especially in conjunction with teaching, at Australian* or overseas language schools.
- Be an instructor or counsellor of traditional Chinese culture and values.

*Some employment positions might also require other teaching qualifications like TAE40116 Certificate IV in Training and Assessment or equivalent.

Entry Requirements

1. Provide notarized (English translated) Junior High School Certificate (Year 10 Certificate in Australia) or an overseas equivalent qualification recognized by an accrediting authority.
2. Have attained fluency in listening, speaking, reading and writing in Mandarin.
3. Be able to recite by memory 弟子規，感應篇，十善業道經 and 孝經 in Mandarin.
4. Recommend to complete the English Language Intensive Course for Overseas Students (ELICOS)*.
5. Attend an online workshop, and pass the academic and virtues assessment given by the Department of Sinology Studies.

*Although the course is mainly taught in Mandarin, students need strong English skills, especially for the Sinology/ Buddhist Studies related English unit NAT11126010. Applicants from an English-speaking background and/or with sufficient English skills (reading, writing, listening and speaking) are exempted from ELICOS.
